Searching Forum Topics

Good morning cisTEMers,

I am a new user. As such, I'm coming up with questions regularly and I imagine many of these have already been addressed in the forum. Is there a way I can perform a more targeted search there (key word, etc.)? As far as I can tell the only option is to go through each posted question...

Any suggestions or guidance would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

Dez

Ah. Well. Umm. Yes. How embarrassing.

Thank you, Niko.
